PRIMARY EXAMINER

Claims 1-27 are allowed over the prior art of record and in light of applicants' arguments.

The amendment filed on 08/02/07 has been considered by the examiner and entered in the file.

The power of attorney filed on 09/28/07 has been acknowledged and entered in the file.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of record to Dillon, Williams and Basani fail to expressly disclose as a whole at least one of the servers in a cluster server stores retrieves articles from a backend server when the articles are requested by a customer; a second communication link, wherein the second communication link provides article requests from at least a first customer to the cluster of servers and provides at least one of the retrieved articles to the at least one customer; and wherein the server system retrieves stored articles from the at least one server in the cluster of servers when a first requested articles has been previously requested by a second customer and is stored in the at least one server in the cluster of servers. Furthermore, in another embodiment, the prior art of record fails to disclose a first server of a plurality of servers accepts a request for a first article from a customer; wherein the first server queries the plurality of servers for the first article; wherein, if the first article is found in one of the plurality of servers storage space, the first article is provided to the first server for delivery to the customer; and wherein, if the first article is not found in one of the plurality of server, the first server requests the first article from the backend server.

Art Unit: 2154

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
